

LECTION WEEK WAS GOOD ONE

Ready Increase of Trade Since Oct. 1.

Western Money Is Said to Be Loosening Up Appreciably.

Commercial Stocks Have Advanced
As a Result of the Political Settlement on Tuesday.

Business was the best last week in Salt Lake merchants have known the general verdict. Trade was comparatively heavy throughout the entire week, which closed with an unusually early Saturday trade. There is nothing about trade conditions—there has been a steady increase since October with only the slight interruption included in election, and the more heated at the campaign.

The same healthy conditions prevail in the trading trade, except that the effects of the election have been even less noticeable than in retail trade. Said the manager of one prominent wholesale grocery house:

Good Year for Grocers.

We anticipated a lighter business this year on account of the Presidential election, and for that reason started the year with less salesmen than we employed last year. But we have done a better business this year with six salesmen than we did last year with seven.
There has come to us this year where we were compelled to go after no longer take the long-time business that formerly we were glad to get.

Closer collections are made and there is more "snap" to business generally.

Money Is Looser.
While local conditions, in the way of good crops, good prices, activity in mining and railroad building, are sufficiently strong to insure an unusually good business year, there are evidences that the situation is to be further strengthened by better times in the East. With the election out of the way, Eastern money is loosening up appreciably, and an unusual demand for Western investments seems inevitable.
Real estate continues quiet but firm, with a healthy demand for inside income property.
An upward movement in local commercial stocks was noted almost immediately following the election. Utah Sugar common advanced from $2.90, the price of the week before, to $4.25, at which figure several sales were made. Idaho Sugar was $11 bid, with no offerings, and Fremont county stood at $10.75. The CLUB IS NOT PLEASED.

Response of Railroad Unsatisfactory to Commercial Body.
The Commercial club committee on railways and transportation will meet at 8 p. m. Monday night to consider the freight situation in its various phases.

Prominent members of the club no longer attempt to conceal the fact that the club is by no means pleased with the response that has been made to the demands for a readjustment of tariffs that would be equitable to Salt Lake City's jobbing interests, and it is possible that a new and more vigorous policy may be adopted in treating the subject.

CLOTHES TO FIT THE MAN RATHER THAN THE MAN TO FIT THE CLOTHES...

Many custom tailors (perhaps yours) seem to put the blame for misfits on your kinks rather than on their clumsiness. Our Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes are "custom-tailored to fit any size." That, and the fact they are considerably better than most of the retail tailored clothes one sees on men these days, are the chief points of difference between them and ordinary clothes. You had better try on a suit or an overcoat before you consult your tailor this fall. It will mean money in your pocket and satisfaction in your mind. You must come in and see how true all this is that you have been reading. Come in and see these clothes, whether you are ready to buy or not.

Ask to see our Welton Hats; the best $3.00 hat values in the West.

Look at the Winter Weight Underwear that we are selling at $2.50 per suit.

Stein-Bloch Suits and Overcoats—$15.00 to $35.00.

Let us show you the best values in Neckwear ever offered at 50 cents.
